ABOUT ME

Greetings! It's a pleasure to connect with you. Having arrived in the United States at a young age, I embarked on a journey of embracing a new culture and adapting to a different societal landscape. This experience has enriched my perspective and deepened my understanding of diverse walks of life and various age groups.

My life's path has been defined by a commitment to honesty, personal well-being, and the pursuit of my utmost potential. This journey has spanned both civilian and military arenas, where I've consistently demonstrated unwavering dedication and a pursuit of excellence that has garnered significant recognition.

I'm thrilled to share my story and insights, as they resonate with anyone striving to carve empowering and inspiring pathways in their own lives. Thank you for considering me, and I'm looking forward to the opportunity to connect and inspire together.

THE TESTIMONIALS

"Liseth Velez is a fantastic speaker. She is an expert in government contracting and offers real, unfiltered advice about what it's like to work with the government. Every time I've had her speak, she's come across as capable, unflappable, knowledgeable, and hardworking. I would recommend her to everyone seeking guidance about government contracting and starting a business. "
